SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The 10-member Council advises the Secretary of the Interior, through the BLM, on a variety of planning and management issues associated with the resource management planning process for the Dominguez-Escalante National Conservation Area and Dominguez Canyon Wilderness. Topics of discussion during the meeting may include informational presentations from various resource specialists working on the resource management plan, as well as Council reports related to the following topics: recreation, fire management, land-use planning process, invasive species management, travel management, wilderness, cultural resource management, and other resource management topics of interest to the Council that were raised during the planning process. These meetings are anticipated to occur monthly. Dates, times and agendas for additional meetings may be determined at future Advisory Council Meetings and will be published in the Federal Register and announced through local media and on the BLM's website for the Dominguez-Escalante planning effort, www.blm.gov/co/st/en/nca/denca/denca_rmp.html. These meetings are open to the public. The public may present written comments to the Council. Each formal Council meeting will have time allocated at the beginning and end of the meeting for hearing public comments. Depending on the number of people wishing to comment and time available, the time for individual oral comments may be limited at the discretion of the chair.

Helen M. Hankins,

BLM Colorado State Director.
